Daughter, Miss Grace Bristed. Mrs. Lowell Lincoln will introduce her daughter, Miss Mary Lincoln, at the Colony Club on the afternoon of December 28.

Mrs. Robert Hartshorne, who is yet at Portland, her country place in Highlands, N. J., will give a dance at her home, 449 Park avenue, on December 18 to introduce her daughter, Miss Mary Hartshorne, and Mrs. Henry K. Browning will give a dance on December 22 for her daughter, Miss Katharine Browning. Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Kahn have decided to introduce this winter their daughter, Miss Maud Kahn, but they have not settled on a date. Some of the dates for private dances after the New Year have been announced. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Porter will give one at Sherry's on January 3 for their daughter, Miss Helen Porter, and early in the month a dance will be given for Miss Aubrey Hoffman by Mrs. W. Watts Sherman and Mrs. Harold Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Williams, who left for the Virginia Hot Springs on Thursday, have decided to give a ball for their youngest daughter, Miss Hope Williams, at the Colony Club on December 28.

In the Church of the Ascension on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Rhoda Van Bibber Tanner, daughter of Mrs. John James Tanner, will be married to Felix D. Doubleday, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Doubleday of Effendi Hill, Oyster Bay, L. I., and this city. The wedding ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the church, and it will be followed by a reception at the Colony Club. The bride, who will be given away by her brother, John Stewart Tanner, will have Mrs. Abbot A. Low for her matron of honor, and the Misses Agnes S. Claffin and Mary Stuart Claffin, sisters of Mrs. Low, will be the bridesmaids. Nelson Doubleday will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be George A. Dixon, Jr., Harvey S. Ladew, Douglas Gibbons, who will marry Miss Cecile Tesson Thayer on October 28; Sidney Dillon Ripley, L. Stuart Wing, Jr., and Brent M. Tanner, another brother of the bride.

Miss Tanner was introduced to society two years ago. She is a member of the old Kentucky family, but for several years has lived in the Washington Square section. She is a cousin of Mrs. John Claffin.

Mr. Doubleday and his bride will make their home at 829 Park avenue after their return from their wedding trip.

The wedding of Miss Mary Corbin of Dayton, Ohio, a cousin of Mrs. William Usher Parsons of Ardley-on-Hudson, to William Bartow Eddison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eddison of Irvington-on-Hudson, will be celebrated on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in St. Barnabas's Church at Irvington. None but relatives and a few intimate friends will witness the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. Parsons. Mrs. Palmer Ramsey of Cleveland, Ohio, a sister of the bride, will be the matron of honor, and Miss Edith Parsons and George Parsons will attend the bride as flower girl and page respectively. Nelson Gatch of St. Louis will act as best man.

Miss Corbin, who is a niece of the late Gen. Henry C. Corbin, has been living for some time with her aunt, Mrs. Parsons, in Ardley.

Miss Estelle Young Romeyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Romeyn, will be married to Ernest Wetmore Pittman of this city on Saturday afternoon in St. Thomas's Church at 3:30 o'clock. Immediately after the ceremony there will be a reception at the Women's University Club, 106 East Fifty-second street.

The bride will have her sister, Mrs. William Everdell, Jr., for her matron of honor, and the other attendants will include the Misses Vouletti Proctor of this city, Annette Wise of Flushing, L. I.; Doris McMillan of Detroit, Mary B. Trowbridge of New Haven and Esther Howell of Philadelphia. Stuart L. Pittman will be his brother's best man. The ushers chosen are Radcliffe Romeyn, brother of the bride; Stanley Meacham, John H. Stewart, Spaulding Howe, Joseph B. Carey and Douglas Dunn. The engagement was announced recently.

Mr. Pittman is a son of Mrs. Homer Wise of Flushing, L. I., and the late Stuart Lansing Pittman of Detroit, Mich. He was graduated from Yale in 1912.

A wedding in Newport on Saturday of interest to society here will be that of Miss Margherita Siegfried, daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Siegfried of Newport and this city, to Joseph de Rivera of New York. Many will go from this city for the wedding ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother.

Miss Siegfried is the only daughter of the late Commander Charles A. Siegfried, who was medical inspector of the United States Navy, stationed at Newport.

Mr. de Rivera is a lieutenant in the First New York Field Artillery and is an aide-de-camp to Major-General F. O'Ryan.

In Baltimore, Md., on Saturday will be celebrated the wedding of Miss Ellen West Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carter Page, to William Ward Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Smith of this city. The wedding ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Edwin Barne Niver, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, at the home of the bride's parents, 917 North Calvert street, and it will be followed by a small reception.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Helen York Judson, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Harry D. Holden.

Henry I. Judson and a sister of Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, to George Elton Parks, formerly of Providence, R. I. It will be celebrated on the afternoon of October 27 at 4:30 in the Church of the Heavenly Rest. The Rev. Herbert Shipman, rector of the church, will officiate, and afterward there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 777 Madison avenue.

Miss Judson will have as her only attendant Miss Nancy Heckscher, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Maurice Heckscher, who will be the flower girl. W. Ledyard Mitchell, a classmate of the bridegroom at Yale, will act as best man, and the ushers will include G. Maurice Heckscher, James Cox Brady, Edward W. Clucas, D. Raymond Noyes, Arthur P. McKinstry and Gordon W. Abbott of this city; Fayette Brown of Cleveland, George S. Munston of Philadelphia, Justice Wilson of Toledo, Ohio, and Daniel Boies of Scranton, Pa.

A dinner will be given for Mrs. Parks by several of his friends at the Union Club on October 25.

Miss Cecile Tesson Thayer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Thayer, will be among the autumn brides to have a wedding in the country. She will be married to Douglas Gibbons on October 28 at Lawrence, L. I., where she has been since the early part of the summer with her parents.

A special train will leave the Pennsylvania station at 2:30 o'clock, arriving in time for the wedding ceremony, which will be followed by a reception. The Misses Marie and Alice Thayer, as her only attendants, and Lee Gibbons of Greenwich, Conn., brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man. There will be no ushers.

Mr. Gibbons will give his farewell bachelor party to-morrow night at the Union Club.

Miss Charlotte Sanford Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Edgar Baker, of 687 Madison avenue, will be married to Carl A. Miller, son of August Miller of Peekskill, N. Y., on November 3 at the home of her parents. The engagement was announced last spring.

Invitations have been sent out for the wedding of Miss Jane Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ogden of Albany, to Frederick C. Tanner, chairman of the Republican State committee, on November 6. The wedding ceremony will be celebrated in the State Street Presbyterian Church, Albany, and the Rev. Charles Sewall, pastor of the church, will be the officiating clergyman. Many relatives and friends from this city will witness the ceremony.

Miss Ogden will have Miss Barbara

Trego of this city for her maid of honor and the bridesmaids will include the Misses Alice Williams and Ruth Feabody of Albany, Little Olive Whitman, daughter of Gov. and Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, will be the flower girl, and Kenneth Charles Ogden, a nephew of the bride, will act as page. Ezra P. Prentice will be best man. The ushers will be United States Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Kenneth C. Ogden, Jr., brother of the bride; Dr. Henry L. Schelling; Robert McMarsh, William Lester Wemple and Laurel Carroll.

A wedding of international interest in Baltimore next month will be that of Miss Christine Marburg, daughter of Theodore Marburg, former Minister to Belgium, to Jonkheer A. W. L. Stachouwer, formerly secretary of the Netherlands Legation at Brussels and now an attaché of the Netherlands Legation at Washington, D. C. The wedding will take place in old St. Paul's Church and will be witnessed by many guests from this city and Washington.

Invitations will soon be sent out for the wedding of Miss Ellen Yulle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Yulle, to William J. Sturges of this city in St. Mary's Church, Scarborough-on-Hudson, on November 17. There will be a special train for guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman B. Frieze of New Brighton, Staten Island, announced recently the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie Hortense Frieze, to R. Taylor Townsend of this city. Mr. Townsend passed the summer at Shore Acres, Fort Wadsworth, Staten Island, the country home of his mother, Mrs. J. Henry Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Walker of New Windsor, N. Y., and this city have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marguerite Thomas Walker, to Harvey Carroll Hines of Kingston, N. C. Miss Walker formerly lived in Durham, N. C., where her father was president of one of the largest tobacco manufacturing industries. The wedding will take place in the spring.

The engagement was announced recently of Miss Gladys B. Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin H. Perry of Haverhill, Mass., to Henry Randolph Knowlton of this city. The wedding will take place this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley R. Merwin have announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Louise Chamberlain, to Ellisworth St. John Prentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan Prentice of New Haven, Conn. No date has been set for the wedding.
